

TITLE:

Cover, Contents, The Authors

AUTHOR(S):

---

CITATION:

Cover, Contents, The Authors. Kyoto Studies in Art History 2017, 2

ISSUE DATE:

2017-04

URL:

<http://hdl.handle.net/2433/229466>

RIGHT:

© Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University and the authors

Kyoto Studies in Art History
Volume 2 2017

Appreciating the Traces of an Artist's Hand

Edited by Toshiharu Nakamura

Department of Aesthetics and Art History
Graduate School of Letters
Kyoto University

Kyoto Studies in Art History Volume 2

Appreciating the Traces of an Artist's Hand

Edited by Toshiharu Nakamura

Department of Aesthetics and Art History, Graduate School of Letters,
Kyoto University, Kyoto, 2017

© Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University and the authors

Printed in Japan by Nakanishi Printing Co., Ltd.

This issue was supported by JSPS KAKENHI Grand Number JP25284029.

Contents

Preface .....	1
Albrecht Dürer's The Desperate Man : Fleeting Images and the Creating Hand .....	3
Kayo Hirakawa
Rubens and the History of the Oil Sketch .....	19
Toshiharu Nakamura
The Hands of Rubens: On Copies and Their Reception .....	41
Nils Büttner
Connection between Rough Brushstrokes and Vulgar Subjects in Seventeenth-Century Netherlandish Paintings .....	55
Michiko Fukaya
Rembrandt in Kassel: The Relativity of Eighteenth-Century Connoisseurship .....	73
Gregor J. M. Weber
Genius, Inspiration, and Hands: Pre-Romantic Image of Artists and Fantasy Figures by Fragonard .....	83
Tomoko Yoshida
Originality, Spontaneity, and Sincerity: The Rise of the Sketch in France at the Turn of the Nineteenth Century .....	99
Nicole R. Myers
“Full of vigour, & nature, fresh, original, warm from observation of nature, hasty, unpolished, untouched”: The Oil Sketches of John Constable .....	111
Mark Evans
How Paul Cézanne Rejected the Fini Concept .....	133
Takanori Nagai
The Authors .....	149

The Authors

KAYO HIRAKAWA is Associate Professor of Art History at the Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University. She has published her dissertation, The Pictorialization of Dürer's Drawings in Northern Europe in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries (Peter Lang, 2009). She is also editor of Kyoto Studies in Art History, vol. 1 "Sacred and Profane in Early Modern Art" (Kyoto University, 2016). Her research on the diversity of pictorial forms in Northern Europe in the sixteenth century now continues.

TOSHIHARU NAKAMURA is Professor of Art History at the Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University. He is the author of Peter Paul Rubens between Art and Politics (Sangensha, 2006), and more recently, the exhibition catalogue, Rubens: Inspired by Italy and Established in Antwerp (Mainichi Newspapers, 2013). He is also editor of Images of Familial Intimacy in Eastern and Western Art (Brill, 2014). He continues to publish broadly in the field of seventeenth-century Dutch and Flemish painting.

NILS BÜTTNER is Professor of Art History at the State Academy of Arts Stuttgart. He specializes in the visual culture of Germany and the Netherlands from the fifteenth to the seventeenth centuries. He has published monographs on Hieronymus Bosch, Pieter Bruegel, Rubens, Rembrandt and Vermeer, as well as the history of landscape painting and the history of drawings and prints.

MICHIKO FUKAYA is Associate Professor at the Faculty of Fine Arts, Kyoto City University of Arts. Her field of research is Dutch paintings of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, with special interest in the Utrecht Caravaggists and the artistic relationship between Italy and the north in general. Among other articles, she published her dissertation on the iconographical study of Cimon and Pero (Kyoto UP, 2012), and translated as co-author The Lives of the Northern Painters by van Mander into Japanese (Chuokoron Bijutsu Shuppan, 2014). Her current research focuses on the connection between Northern painters and patrons from the Spanish faction in Rome in the early seventeenth century.

GREGOR J. M. WEBER is Head of Fine and Decorative Arts at the Rijksmuseum, Amsterdam. He had been before Curator of Italian Paintings at the Gemäldegalerie Alte Meister in Dresden and later Director of the Gemäldegalerie Alte Meister in Kassel. He published about Old Master paintings in the Netherlands and Italy and organized several exhibitions, among them about Rembrandt's landscapes (2006) and his late works (2014/2015). His academic publications deal with art theory, iconography, connoisseurship and the history of collections.

TOMOKO YOSHIDA is Associate Professor of Art History at Kyoto Notre Dame University. Her main field of research is French paintings of the eighteenth century. She has published articles on Fragonard, Chardin, Joseph Vernet in Japanese. She is one of the contributors to Kayo Hirakawa (ed.), Aspects of Narrative in Art History: Proceedings of the International Workshop for Young Researchers, Held at the Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University, Kyoto 2-3 December 2013, Kyoto, 2014 ("Doubling the Pleasure: Pendants in Eighteenth-Century French Paintings and Prints," pp. 127–140).

NICOLE R. MYERS is the Lillian and James H. Clark Curator of European Painting and Sculpture at the Dallas Museum of Art. She completed her master's degree and Ph.D. in Art History at the Institute of Fine Arts, New York University, with the dissertation Gustave Courbet and the Realist Nude. A specialist of French painting, Nicole has published on wide-ranging topics from Realism to Symbolism, Poussin to Van Gogh. Recent publications include "'Le grand art s'en va': La Peinture au Salon de 1863" in Spectaculaire Second Empire (Musée d'Orsay, Paris, 2016) and "Le Réalisme et le rococo dans les premiers nus de Courbet" in Actes du Colloque Courbet, peinture et politique (Université de Franche-Comté, Besançon, 2013).

MARK EVANS is Senior Curator of Paintings at the Victoria and Albert Museum. He previously held posts at the National Museum of Wales, the Walker Art Gallery in Liverpool and the University of St. Andrews. An authority on Renaissance painting, the work of John Constable and the history of collecting, he was editor of Art Collecting and Lineage in the Elizabethan Age: The Lumley Inventory and Pedigree (2010) and Dutch and Flemish Drawings in the Victoria and Albert Museum (2014). His recent exhibitions include Raphael: Cartoons and Tapestries for the Sistine Chapel (2010), John Constable: Oil Sketches (2011), Constable: The Making of a Master (2014) and Botticelli Reimagined (2015–2016).

TAKANORI NAGAI is Associate Professor of History of Art and Design at Kyoto Institute of Technology. His published works (all in Japanese) in the past 10 years include, The Site in the French Modern Art (Sangensha, 2016; writing and editing), Research and Methods: Analyze the French Modern and Contemporary Art (Koyo Shobo, 2014; writing and editing), Want to Know More about Cézanne (Tokyo Bijutsu, 2012; solo author), The Power of Design (Koyo Shobo, 2010; writing and editing), Research on the Reception of Cézanne: Cézanne in Japan 1902–1945 (Chuokoron Bijutsu Shuppan, 2007; solo author, Ph. Dissertation, Kyoto University), Current French Modern Art History from the Perspective of the "New Art History" (Sangensha, 2007; writing and editing).